Introducing Fr. Jack Michalchuk, Our New Pastor!

Fr. Jack Michalchuk was born in Calgary, Alberta, where he spent his formative years. He studied theatre and education for a time at the University of Calgary, before feeling the call to missionary work. In 1991, he spent three months in Haiti working with Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity in an orphan baby hospital, a home for the dying, and a wound clinic, which opened up the door to a potential priestly vocation. As a young man he lived in a new religious community in Alexandria Louisiana doing various ministry and further discernment of his vocation. After some time doing campus ministry, he attended seminary in the New Orleans area, and was ordained in 2001. This May 26 he celebrated 25 years of ordination. After serving 11 years as a priest in Louisiana, the Lord called Fr. Jack back home to the mission land of Northern BC where he worked for a number of years in the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis for the Diocese of Prince George, then served for several years as the Pastor of St. Joseph Church and School in Smithers. Now he has been assigned as the pastor of Sacred Heart Parish and Veritas School in Terrace.

This weekend is Fr. Jack's first weekend as the Pastor of Sacred Heart Parish. Please take a moment to greet Fr. Jack and be sure to keep him in your prayers as he begins his time of ministry with us. Please note, that Fr. Jack has brought his dog, Cora along with him to Terrace, she will be living at the rectory with Fr. Jack.
