Summer Time in the Church

A Gentle Reminder: As we enjoy the summer season and have unpacked our summer clothes, let us always remember that—even in our outer appearance—we are called to reflect the image of Christ. The significance of Mass is endless, so your dress at Mass is a statement to yourself and others that this is not just any other activity. This is important.

Below are a few guidelines to help you determine what to avoid for Mass, such as:

- Sleeveless tops
- Low-cut necklines
- Ball caps
- Short skirts
- Short shorts

To conclude:

"Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest" Catechism of the Catholic Church No. 1387.

-Thank you
