Jesus, I trust in You

Divine Mercy
Sunday

Dear Friends in Jesus Christ,

A blessed Easter season to all of you! I was filled with joy to see the pews full of the faithful during the Easter liturgies. It was wonderful to celebrate Our Lord's Passion and Resurrection together, in person! Thank you again to all the volunteers and lay ministers who contributed to the weekend and thank you to everyone for keeping the flame of faith alive. COVID lockdowns and restrictions posed many challenges over the past two years and I encourage you to continue to nurture your faith and love of the Church.

This Sunday I leave for India, to see my loved ones, from whom I have long been separated, and to take some rest. Before I depart I wish to say one more thank you for your generous donations to the Pallottine order earlier this year. The money will be put to good use by our missionaries in India where we aid those in great need. God Bless!

Your pastor,

James JD

The Divine Mercy Image

As revealed to St. Faustina:

The two rays denote Blood and Water.

The pale ray stands for the Water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the Cross. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of him (299). By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. It is to be a reminder of the demands of My mercy, because even the strongest faith is of no avail without works (742).

These words indicate that the Image represents the graces of Divine Mercy poured out upon the world, especially through Baptism and the Eucharist.
