St. Margaret Mary Alcoque
Feast Day October 20th

St. Margaret Mary Alcoque, a French Roman Catholic Visitation nun and mystic, is greatly recognized for her devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Margaret was born in 1647 in Burgandy, France. At 14, having been cured of a lengthy illness, she decided to become a nun and in 1671 she entered the Visitation convent at Paray-le-Monial. Between 1673 and 1676 she experienced four visions concerning the Sacred Heart, and was told to record them by her confessor.

By 1686 the community too was honouring the heart of Jesus, and in 1688 a chapel in the garden was consecrated to the Sacred Heart. Two years later Margaret died, but the devotion she had begun at Paray was now firmly established.

Tuesday, October 20th we will celebrate the feast day of St. Margaret Mary Alcoque, champion of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with Holy Mass at 7:00pm and a reception to follow in the St. Matthew's Room. Please join us! For one of our Parish's most important feast days!

Episode 5: Who is Jesus?

The most beautiful part of this story is this: we can know God's love, personally. This is the person of Jesus. But how did this seemingly insignificant carpenter born into poverty in a dusty corner of the Roman Empire become the most pivotal figure in all of history? Christianity isn't simply a philosophy for life – the center of Christianity is a person. We look at the life of Jesus and what he came to do. Ultimately, we need to decide if Jesus really was who he said he was. We can't sit on the fence. Because if Jesus really was who he said he was, we need to make him the Lord of our lives, and everything changes.

You are welcome to bring a small plate of baking or other snacks to share with our participants! Thank you!
